

ELEGANT SHAFT AT APPOMATTOX

Grand Gathering of Confederate Camps to Unveil It Next Saturday.

MRS. ATWOOD'S FINE WORK.

The Beautiful Shaft Due to Faithful Energies of a Devoted Lady.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SPANISH CAK VAL, June 2.—The monument to the Confederate soldiers of Appomattox county will be unveiled on June 8th. The exercises will begin at 10:30 A. M. Judge George J. Hundley will make the presentation address; Congressman Hail Flood will accept the monument in behalf of the people, and Governor Swanson will then deliver the principal address.
All the Confederate camps in the State, as well as many people of prominence from all parts of the State have been invited to attend. The Lynchburg Guard are expected to be present as an escort to the Governor, and efforts are being

APPOMATTOX MONUMENT.

made to secure a good brass band for the occasion. Elaborate arrangements are being made to make the day a memorable one. Rev. Hugh C. Smith is chairman of the Committee on Entertainment. The committee is composed of three representatives from every church congregation in the county, these all working under the skillful guiding hand of Mr. Smith makes success in this line assured.
Mr. S. L. Ferguson has charge of the platform and decorations, and he has associated with him a number of ladies and gentlemen, and it goes without saying that Sam Ferguson will have things in good shape on the 8th.

T. J. Stratton, J. R. Horsley and Joe Button, compose the Committee of Invitation.
The monument was built by Mr. J.
Henry Brown, of Richmond, Va. It is of Richmond granite, 9 feet 8 inches at base, and it is including statute 35 feet high. The statue is made of Italian marble, is 6 feet tall and represents a Confederate soldier at parade rest. The full inscription reads, 1861-1865, Appomattox County, To Our Soldiers of the Confederacy.

The idea of the erection of this monument originated with Mrs. John Randolph Atwood, of West Appomattox, some four or five years ago. Mrs. Atwood is a daughter of the Confederacy, and being fully convinced that the brave, faithful soldiers who went to the front from this county in defense of our Southland, deserved and ought to have some recognition at the hands of the people.
Inspired by this worthy sentiment she took up the self-imposed task of raising the money required to build a monument, and through all the years she labored on single-handed and alone, until at last success crowned her well directed efforts, and last summer she made the startling announcement that she had enough money in hand to insure the erection of a suitable monument. Then it was that the county board of supervisors gave $300 to the monument fund.

The Appomattox Camp, Confederate Veterans, by request took charge of the work; appointed a committee to be known as the Monument Committee, and visited the same with plenary powers. The committee is as follows: T. J. Stratton, chairman; Dr. W. H. Abbott, Major J. W.
Flood, Captain W. T. Johnson and J.
Kirk Hannah, Esq.
The said committee took up the work without delay, made a contract with J. Henry Brown, of Richmond, Va., to erect the monument at a cost of $1,500.
On the 14th day of last October, the cornerstone was laid with imposing Masonic ceremonies, Major John W. Daniel made the Confederate address, and Hon.
Hail Flood spoke for the Masons. Dinner free to all, was served on the grounds.
A large crowd was present and all had a good time.

White Hosiery

For June Brides, Graduates and General Summer Wear

Hosiery manufacturers in this country can't begin to compete with the foreign mills in medium-price lace effects and thin sheer goods.

The European mills outdo us in quality and general effect at similar prices.

This is particularly true of a line of White Stockings we carry at 35c pair.

White Allover Lace 35c pair
White Boot Lace Effects
White Sheer Gauze Lisle

Fine Imported White Gauze Lisle Hose.
Fine Grenadine Lace Hose, in allover and boot effects.
Fine White Silk Lisle, finished to look like silk, 50c pair.

New Lace Hosiery, with embroidered instep, new patterns, beautifully worked out by hand, 75c and $1 pair.

White Silk Hose, in plain and lace effects, $1 to $3.50 pair.

Misses' Imported White All-Lace Hose, all sizes, 50c pair.

Children's White Lisle-Thread Fine Ribbed Hose, 17c and 25c pair.

Redfern Corsets

REDFERN style "E" shown in the illustration is one of the many styles adapted to the average form. It perfectly reproduces the Louis XV "style" of the Parisian models for this season and the price of the American corset is about half that of the French model.

Redfern Corsets are all boned with genuine whalebone.
Model "E" is made of fine Coutil, medium high bust, long hip, three side steels, two sets of rubber button hose supporters, $6.

Style "F" comes in fine coutil, medium high bust, long hip, three side steels, two sets of garters, $3.

Women's White Gloves

Silk and Lisle

We are the only store in Richmond, and one of the very few stores in the United States that has satisfactorily met the unprecedented demand for long gloves of all kinds this season.

We quote below a few of the good values in White Gloves we have for you, in both long and short styles.

Fine Imported Long Silk Lisle Gloves, elbow a V-shaped yoke of all-over lace, trimmed back and front with pin tucking and two rows of lace insertion; centre panel of lace down the front of waist and skirt trimmed with embroidered medallions. All sizes. $4.98

New Models in Light Weight Summer Suits

$12.50 to $20

White Pique, White Linen, Brown Hollands and Silk Pongees

Exclusive designs with us in semi-fitting Box Coats and Cadet Coat styles.

We might go into a detailed description of their style and beauty, but you'll appreciate their value far better after seeing the garments. Sufficient to say that we selected the Suits from a wide assortment as being the best in quality and newest in appearance that we've seen this summer.

well they might, as it's not often $3 and $4 curtains are offered at half price and less.

Silks for Summer Wear

A Choice Collection of Low Price Fabrics of Good Value

That a thin silk is the coolest fabric one can wear in summer time is evidenced by the fact that they enter largely into the costumes of natives of hot climates.

We present a few specimens of Summer Silks to-day that should appeal to you, not only because of their quality and weight, but also on account of their very low prices.

spoke hemstitched ends. 25c
Each

The second value is in an Extra Large, Heavy Bath Towel, full bleached and hemmed, 21x47 inches. With cotton towels advancing as they are, this Towel, for its size and weight, is unusually cheap.

Hammocks $2 to $5.25

You'll want one, of course—the only question is where to buy.

Ours were picked out for their size, looks and durability.

We secured the best that could be had, and then tacked on the lowest price that was fair.
